Director's Note:

It has been a joy to work with these talented actors and staff on this production of Lion King Jr. In our story you will see a beautiful beginning, growing pains, loss, happiness, love and a new beginning. As in many Disney classics, we are reminded thru despair and anger that there is hope, kindness and love.

Over the past months I have seen this group of actors become a family. They are there to help each other, applaud each other for a job well done and laugh at each other's silliness. It has been a honor to work with a very talented production staff. Watching our actors bringing our vision to life has been amazing. I would like to take this time and thank the parents and volunteers that have been helping from the very beginning to make this production amazing.

As Mufasa would say to Simba "all these things happen in the great circle of life". So sit back and enjoy our production of Lion King Jr. and again thank you for joining us.

We are forever indebted to our generous donors. Without our donors, we'd have no scripts, no lights, no sound and no production. It takes a community to have a community theatre. If you'd like to become a CPAM benefactor or make an anonymous gift, please contact one of our board members. Your generosity makes a difference in the lives of these children and the community as a whole. You make performing arts in the Miami Valley possible.
